RESUBMISSION OF AMENDMENT DUE TO

PAGES 13 AND 14 BEING OUT OF ORDER IN ORIGINAL SUBMISSION

MAIL STOP AMENDMENT
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

The purpose of this submission is to correct a previous EFS-Web submission having pages that are inadvertently out of order.

Specifically, the undersigned filed via EFS-Web a document entitled "AMENDMENT AND RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION MAILED JULY 13, 2007 -AND- SUMMARY OF APPLICANT INITIATED EXAMINER INTERVIEW". The document is dated 10/15/07 and is for the above-identified patent application. The document was received by the USPTO at 23:59:11 Eastern Time on 15-OCT-2007.

In viewing the document on PAIR the undersigned just discovered that pages 13 and 14 are inadvertently out of order.

In order to correct this problem the pages have been placed in the correct order and the entire document is being resubmitted herewith. Therefore, please replace the document received by the USPTO at 23:59:11 Eastern Time on 15-OCT-2007 with the accompanying document. The undersigned hereby states that the documents are identical other than pages 13 and 14 being out of order in the original submission.

THE RESUBMISSION OF THE AMENDMENT IS STILL TIMELY

The accompanying amendment is in response to a non-final office action dated July 13, 2007. Because the three-month due date of October 13, 2007, fell on a Saturday, the amendment may be timely filed the following Monday, which in this case is October 15, 2007.

Even though the resubmission of the accompanying amendment will be received by the USPTO on October 16, 2007, the undersigned attorney asserts that the resubmission is nevertheless timely because the local date at the time of this transmission is October 15, 2007. Namely, the undersigned attorney is physically located in San Diego, California, where the transmission of this submission is originating. (Please note that even though the below indicated correspondence address is Chicago, Illinois, the undersigned attorney lives and works in San Diego, California).
